BOB-BOB-BOBBIN' ALONG...

A message from our President

My Faithful Followers!

I want to start out by expressing my appreciation to everyone who helped make last month's meeting a success. Several unrelated circumstances conspired to make it a disaster, but we prevailed.

First off, Therese got us a new presenter in a matter of days who knocked our socks off with her beautiful quilts. Trisch Price did an amazing job.

Those of you who showed up to set up chairs and tables before the meeting did an extraordinary job. By the time I had gotten the key fob from the secretary, you had almost everything set up. Afterwards everyone pitched in and got everything put back up neatly and efficiently. You guys are A-mazing!

Nancy Hughes helped with the sound system and not only made it easier for me, but also gave us better sound quality.

Most of all, you as a group did not whine nor complain about any of the changes, but took it in stride, showed up and made the best of it. You guys are truly the Best! You, as usual, made me so proud to be your leader--I am most fortunate!

Join me to welcome our speaker this month, Jane Anderson from Vinita, OK (Boomer Sooner). I think you will be blown away by her beautiful quilts.

Your Proud Potentate,

Kathy

APRIL MEETING

SPEAKER: JANE ANDERSON

"Stories and Trunk Show"

Jane Anderson's first quilt top was hand-pieced when she was ten years old. Completely self-taught, Jane began making pillows and wall hangings in the early 1980s. In 1986 she finished her first quilt and she hasn't stopped.

Jane has won numerous awards for her quilting, including best of show awards at quilt shows in Oklahoma and Missouri.

Retired from her career after 28 years in the healthcare field, Jane devotes herself to making quilts and collecting antique sewing tools. She is married to the perfect quilter's husband: he cooks; she quilts. Jane's one complaint is that she didn't start quilting earlier because she has way too many quilts in her head thirsting to get finished.

NEXT MONTH: AIRING OF THE QUILTS

Special Focus: Signature Quilts

HOW I STARTED QUILTING

featuring... Ann Roberts

I have always sewed clothes for myself and my three children. In 1969, my husband left home for a tour of duty in Vietnam. Noticing that I was blue, my neighbor said she'd like to show me what to do with my leftover scraps. She taught me to construct a nine-patch, and I was hooked. I made a bed size Puss in the Corner which now belongs to a daughter. The other daughter and our son eventually received their own quilts too. And many more!

Q.U.I.L.T. Guild Meeting
Southside Church of Christ, Rogers, AR
Thursday, March, 2016

President Kathy Garringer called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. and welcomed 75 members; 11 guests: Sue Terry, Carlee Ray Blevins, Lyn Kennedy, Kristin Atha Carette, Debbie Maule, Ellen Rinard, Elizabeth Ray, Whitney Ware, Katie Myers, Anna Martin, and Lois Hudak.

She also welcomed our vendor and speaker Trisch Price from Overland Park, Kansas.

Sunshine and Shadows:

Jeannie Schneider, off Chemo now, waiting for results
Kim Dickinson, her and her husband are not doing well
Carolyn Gaskill, send cards of encouragement
LoVina Payton, her ulcers

Tonight's Program: Therese Ramsey

Trisch Price – Trunk Show

Trisch Price started quilting in the 1990s when she was working during the day as a software engineer and attending graduate school at night. With technology seemingly taking over her life, she was in need of a low-tech diversion. Trisch started making contemporary and art quilts. Around 2005, modern quilting took over her studio. She first started with paper and pencils on graduation designs then tried reversal patterns, interruption quilts, piecing backgrounds, negative quilts and finally ghost quilting. Trisch brought quilts she has featured in her books for the guild to see and examine. Her books are: Accentuate the Negative and Tree of life Quilts. She speaks to guilds and teaches workshops.
