BOB-BOB-BOBBIN' ALONG...

A message from our President

Dear Hotsy Totsies!!!!

We have had some losses in our guild over the past few months; Kay Jump, Lonetta Blevin's son, Diane Eaton, David Moran's mother. There were probably more, but these came to my mind. Most of these were very unexpected.

These remind us all that we need to make the most of every moment we share with each other. Take time to laugh and cry with each other. Let others peek into your heart and your life. Encourage and build each other up. Love each other. Most importantly, listen to each other. It's not the big things we do, but the small things we do each day. Someone told me once that most of the teenagers who walk through the school doors each morning have not had a kind word said to them--have not even had a smile that morning. That really struck a chord with me. I decided that I could stand by my room door and smile and say "Good morning." to whomever went by. No one ever ran up and hugged and thanked me, but I have to believe that it was worth it if even one went by and felt just a little bit better. We can do the same with each other. I truly believe in the "Power of One". Be that "One" in another quilter's day. Feel free to practice kindness on me--I will happily be your guinea Pig! He! He! He!

I hope to see all your smiling faces at our September Meeting. We are going to discuss some ideas for possible changes to our meetings in order to get us out a little bit earlier. Be thinking about ideas. I think we are quite capable of making a great thing greater!

Your Red, Hot Mama!

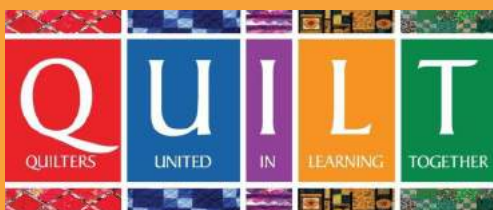

Kathy

AUGUST MEETING

SPEAKER: PAULA MARIEDAUGHTER

"Diagonal Designs Make Dynamic Quilts"

Fascinated by fabric from girlhood, Paula Mariedaughter found her creative home in quilting. What she really loves is finding the elements and putting it all together. She describes herself as a mixed media collage artist—this allows her many options. She has no formal training in art. As a girl, she expressed herself in artistic ways including scrapbooks, collage, sewing and fashion. Her talented mother, Marie, loved creating with fabric and she believes this love is in her genes or at least in her Scotch-Irish heritage. With her guidance, she learned to sew.

MEMBERSHIP

BY BARB HAMERNIK - MEMBERSHIP CHAIR

We are now up to 171 Members strong! I am excited at all the newer members and returning former members that we have. I wanted to put something in about Contact Box because of this. The directory was printed in February and does not include quite a few of the members who have joined since then. Sheila Bayles has come up with an great system to keep all of us updated and at the tips of our fingers. It does work on any Apple or Android smart phone and it is FREE! Best yet.

The first thing to do is to download the free app Contact Box. The app is blue and white with the picture of a person on it. Sheila can't add you unless you have that first. Then email either Sheila at sbayles1120@gmail.com or Kathy Garringer at kathygarringer@gmail.com. They will send you an email back connecting you to the group. It is a closed group so only those two can add, remove, or change information. We did that so it was not out there where everyone could see our information, keeping it private. You can even put a picture out there so everyone will know who you are!

Sadly, if you don't have a smart phone, email me at barbh1020@yahoo.com and let me know you need membership updates. I have a list that I have sent out for Kathy and Cassie (newsletter) so I can send you that. Again I don't want it in the newsletter because that shows up on the blog.

Looking forward to seeing you at the next meeting,

Barb Hamernik

Small Quilt Auction

It's time to be thinking about making something for the small quilt auction!

Therese Ramsey is ready to collect what you make for safe keeping. If your quilts are small, like 12 x 12-ish, they can be hung using straight pins. All others will need sleeves attached.

Who's going to be first to get one turned in?

Let the small quilts begin!!

SUPER SATURDAY SEW-IN

DIAGONAL DESIGN

TAUGHT BY PAULA MARIEDAUGHTER

Following her presentation on August 25 at our guild meeting of the program "Diagonal Designs Make Dynamic Quilts" Paula Mariedaughter will be offering the

SATURDAY, AUGUST 27
9AM-3PM

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

1901 SOUTH 26TH ST, ROGERS

COST: $10

Super Saturday class: "Diagonal Designs" on August 27 at the church in Rogers off New Hope Road from 9-3.

Paula will provide two different block patterns for the class. Each block contains a diagonal split in color or shading to give you lots of creative options. All the options available for putting together a log cabin style quilt are here. Make it scrappy or sophisticated, you will enjoy creating with either these basic blocks.

The focus will be on choosing fabrics and colors for your block, and then arranging and rearranging the blocks on your design wall to create your own special arrangement. Paula will assist you in creating your own design. These blocks can even be used to create spectacular borders.

Cost will be $10 for members and non-members. Please contact Paula with any questions at paulamariedaughter@windstream.net or 479.677.2235. Contact Amy Rollins at bobkat1004@aol.com if you would like to attend.

Supplies: Visit Paula's website, paulamariedaughter.com

Fabric Options: As always in a class with Paula, bring lots of options for yourself. Pack a tote bag or a suitcase if you do not know exactly what you want to use. The basic block calls for a light (or medium) for one side and a dark for the other side with a zinger for the center. You will not need much fabric to cut those zingers, but it has to have good contrast with the other two fabrics. If you choose to make it scrappy, you will have more of a challenge, but it adds personality to use a variety of fabrics. It will probably take more time to create this version.

there are still openings in this class!

CHENILLE QUILT WORKSHOP

Mark your calendar for Grace Grame's Chenille Quilt Workshop! It will be $30 members, $35 non members. This workshop will be at B-Sew-Inn from 9am-3pm. Grace will have the supply list very soon, but participants should look for three (3) bright, bold, thick fabrics colored on both sides for the best effect, to go along with their denim.

Contact Lori Jones at alliancelori@aol.com for more information!

Only 10 rooms left!

She loves fiber art and belongs to three fiber art groups. She used to make quilts and would give them all away, it wasn't until 1990 that she began keeping them. She brought many beautiful, unusual small quilts to show the guild. She has made many miniature quilts using different methods and techniques. She machine pieces and hand quilts. One of her miniature quilts was approximately 8x8" in size but had 644 pieces in it. She uses hand dyed fabrics and various different mediums in her quilts.
