SEW HERE WE GO!!!

A message from our President

Hello everyone,

Well, August is almost over and it seems that the summer months have just flown by! The only other thing that seems to go as fast is my lunch break at work.

The program last month was inspiring and has me thinking about some new projects and definitely thinking about the scraps that I've been tossing.

The Benton County Fair is over and the Washington County Fair is coming up quickly. I remember my granny lived on B street in Muskogee and we would sit on her front porch and watch the trucks that were carrying the rides go by towards the fairgrounds at the end of street and getting so excited about the fair! In life we need to be excited about things and share our passion for them.

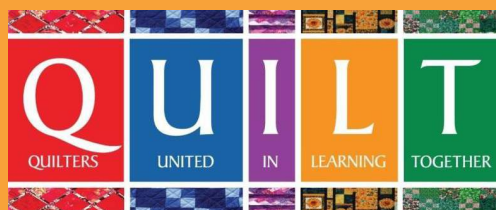

I've been working on a cat quilt for a friend for his Christmas gift and as I put the finishing touches on the top today, I kept thinking about how excited he'll be to get it. I'm glad that I'm able to share my love of quilting with my friends and family! They are getting a gift of love that I made for them.

I hope everyone is doing okay and will see everyone at the meeting next week.

AUGUST MEETING

SPEAKER:
LYNNE HAGMEIER
"Moda and Beyond"

Lynne learned to quilt over 25 years ago at a local quilt shop in Salina, Kansas, called The Quilting Bee, while working there part time. Her love of quilting evolved from other interests over the years; from cross-stitch & painting to home decorating & antiques. In 2000, Moda fabrics offered Lynne an opportunity to design fabric for their growing company. In 2001, she & her husband Robert sold their house & moved to a restored two-story brick building in Lynne's childhood hometown of Bennington, Kansas, to expand her studio. Lynne is traveling several times a year to quilt shops and guilds across the country to offer programs & workshops from her quilt books & patterns.

hosted by Modern Guild of NWA
Tuesday, October 17th
6:30pm
Rogers Activity Center

$5 for guests

Workshop: Fox Hole Pillow
9am-1pm
Wednesday, October 18th
Rogers Activity Center
(315 West Olive Street, Rogers)

$35 for guests

The technique is paper piecing, experience not required. Start signing up with Suzanne Kittrell $35 (or $25 for MQG members), space is limited. The workshop will be held at the Rogers Activity Center at 315 West Olive Street in Rogers from 9am-1pm. We have the room till 3pm so you can stay a bit longer if needed.

Supplies Needed:

Book, New York Beauties & Flying Geese: 10 Dramatic Quilts, 27 Pillows, 31 Block Patterns

Purchase the book in advance to allow for fabric requirements and cutting preparations. You will want to make copies of the appropriate paper-piecing and solid area templates for the Fox Hole Pillow or purchase acrylic templates for solid areas (see below for more information). If unable to purchase the book beforehand, foundation papers for the Flying geese and pieced arcs will be available for $12. A fabric and template supply list can be provided if needed.

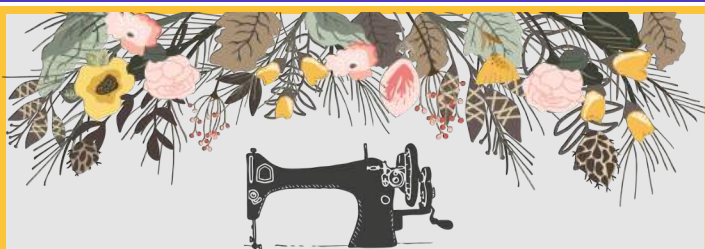

You can get the book online or maybe your local quilt store. The book is $19 on Amazon. A member spotted Carl's book at the Fayetteville Joann's (you can use your coupon!).

Elizabeth Ray has both sets of the thick acrylic templates that go with the book, you are welcome to borrow and trace onto your fabric at the workshop. These can also be purchased at quiltexchange.com, search for Background & Circles.

Quilt Congress 2017

We are just over 2 months away from Quilt Congress (October 27-28)!

I keep getting asked, "What is Quilt Congress?"

The term "Congress" is used because it is a gathering of quilters from the northwest quadrant of the state of Arkansas, although it is not limited to that area. This has been going on since the 1980's to bring quilters together to hear speakers, have workshops, shop vendors, find bargains at the country store and silent auction, compete in a challenge, see some show and tell, have a meal together, and make new friends. We don't vote on anything and there is very little business taken care of at all! It is a couple of days to concentrate on all things quilty! The $35 charge is a bargain for all of this! Our workshops are only an additional $25 plus the reasonable price of kits. I hope all of you sign up! There will be a limit of 300 spots, so sign up soon. The deadline is October 5.

Our next Congress meeting is Monday, October 21 at 5:30 at First Methodist Church in Springdale. I have sent out all the registration forms in emails to most of you. I will bring a few paper forms for those of you without computers at the upcoming meeting. Forms and information are also available on our edublog, quiltguildnwa.edublogs.org and on quiltcongress.blogspot.com.

We will be making up some volunteer sign-ups soon for the Congress. We will need help in the Country Store and Silent Auction, the registration table, breakout sessions, lunch distribution and other areas. You do not get free admission if you help, just my undying affection. Even I have to pay!
