SEW HERE WE GO!!!

A message from our President

Ladies and Gentlemen!

Well, time for another newsletter; seems like I just did one. I can't believe how fast time seems to go anymore, it seems like I graduated high school not too long ago and this year has been 35 years since then!

I am working on Quilt blocks today and had to buy 2/3 of a yard of fabric to fussy cut one flower out of and, while I have the 9 flowers cut out, I am hoping I didn't make a mistake and have to go back to the fabric store to get more fabric.

When I started this quilt I thought I'd make it for a friend and now I'm thinking about keeping it. That's part of my problem, I don't like to give my quilts away! I do manage to give a few away but not very often, with my sister getting more than most. Does anyone else have this problem of letting go of the quilt they've worked on?

I need to get it done before Christmas and hopefully I'll get it done in time, along with the other ones I have to have done by then. My biggest thing is I love to read and if I get into a book it's easy to lose track of time and wish I could do the same with my quilting.

Remember that The Scrappy Farmer will be at our meeting on the 27th and it'll be a great program! The 40th annual Ozark Quilt Fair will be Saturday, September 8th. If you haven't been to this Quilt Fair it's worth going to! I went a couple of years ago. It's at the Shiloh Museum in Springdale. They string cords between the trees and every where you look there are quilts hanging and they even had a Bluegrass band playing. Makes for a great day! I will get more details on this. Well, better run and get back to sewing!

I hope everyone is having a great summer so far and staying cool in this heat!

Quilt Congress 2017

We are slowly getting Quilt Congress together. The (digital) fliers are ready and one round has been emailed out. They will be up on the blogspot soon as well. We are planning break-out sessions for Saturday which is exclusive to our Quilt Congress. If you have never gone to one, this is your opportunity! We will have vendors Friday evening and Saturday, two speakers (Jan Krentz and Raija Salomaa), a choice of 6 different break out sessions, a challenge, show and tell, a country store and silent auction, lunch and just a lot of Quilters gathered from this side of the state.

We are still collecting items for the country store and silent auction so go through your stash of fabric, notions and books and give us a donation.

Several of you have offered help, but let me know if you would like to be a part of the planning. We meet the 3rd Monday of the month at First Methodist Church in Springdale at 5:30. Come to the West entrance and Richard Harris will give you directions.

Kathy

Quilt Show 2017 News

Some sharing was missed on details for our Quilt Show Raffle Quilt. The winning ticket was sold by member Leslie Jones to her son, Matt Jones. Total net income, $3292.63.

A great big THANK YOU to Raija Salomaa for donating the quilt pattern, fabrics for the quilt and for the beautiful long arm quilting. You are so appreciated!

THANK YOU to all of those that helped to piece the quilt top, the binding and the fabulous label!

As you know, these sales help support QUILT for the next two years, so THANK YOU to all that sold or bought raffle tickets.

Lynne Hagmeier's Workshop

Lynne Hagmeier of Kansas Troubles Quilters in Bennington, KS will be teaching a workshop on Friday, August 25th on Clara's Raised Bed Garden. There is also an option of doing an additional half-day workshop on Mini Table Treats if there is enough interest.

Sign up with Lori Jones by Thursday's Guild meeting (the 27th) via email at allianceLori@aol.com

Cuddly Quilts had a great turn out for our cutting party on June 30th. We made 24 quilt kits and everyone took home fabric to work on kits. We had two ladies bring fabric cutters to help the process go faster.

Thank you to everyone for coming and spending your time by helping out!

April Wells

Please take a peek at the Local Guilds page (page 10) and let me know of any corrections. Thanks! -- Cassie

Jan will be our speaker at the October meeting (Thursday, October 26th).

Quilt Show 2019

The next quilt show will be held April 4-6 and will be held at the Encore Event Center in Springdale. (1106 N. Old Missouri Road, the old National Home Center building)

In August I will be putting out a call for members to help organize the quilt show. I hope you will consider this opportunity. We will have fun and you get to put your personal 'stamp' on it as well.

2017 Quilter's R & R Retreat

a note from liz ewing

At present we have 22 people signed up for the retreat. Camp Egan requires that we fill 8 rooms of the retreat center before we can use the large sewing rooms for free. We are close to filling the eight rooms however, there are 6 more rooms available if you are interested in coming.

Amy and I are working to make this a relaxing retreat with demo's, gifts and mystery quilt. Hope those of you who are still contemplating coming will join us. I think you will find the facility very accommodating and the sewing area well lit and roomy.

August 4th is the last date to sign up before I have to give all the information to the retreat center.
