BOB-BOB-BOBBIN' ALONG...

A message from our President

My Dahling June Bugs!

Well, we've gone directly from Monsoon Season to Broiler Season. Be sure to wear that sunscreen!

We had such a great time at the Airing of the Quilts. We installed the new officers, had some great food, saw some beautiful quilts and even had some visitors. The weather couldn't have been more perfect. Little known fact--I have a lot of pull in the realm of meteorology.

I am looking forward to hearing from local quilt shop owner, designer, ruler guru, and just all around great gal, Pam Goggans. She has a wealth of information. She will also be vending.

I still have some pillowcases left at the quilt show, so check with me if you are missing yours.

There are still 3 or 4 spaces left for the Jane Sassaman workshop coming up August 28. Google her--she is big time in the quilting and sewing world. Your guild is providing a world class teacher at bargain basement prices. Don't let this opportunity pass you by. Our new program chairman, Lori Jones, will have sign up available at the meeting, June 25. Jane will be presenting at our regular meeting on August 27. Guests will need to pay $5 to attend.

We also have a workshop coming up on July 24 called Floating Stars by Denniele Bohannon. July 25 is a Super Saturday Sew-in with Barb Hamernik. It will be a Bear Paw and will be $10. We have a lot going on--take advantage of it.

Everybody stay safe and cool!

Your Cool Caliph,

Kathy

JUNE MEETING

SPEAKER: PAM GOGGANS

"A Sampling of Samplers"

Pam Goggans started quilting 25 years ago after many years of crafting, cross-stitch and decorative sewing. After 10 years of quilting, she and her husband Cliff opened Sager Creek Quilts. She started machine quilting with her domestic machine but quickly graduated to a long-arm.

Pam started designing patterns shortly after beginning to quilt for a guild where she was a member. After opening the shop, she continued to design packet patterns and Block of the Month patterns as well as various Shop Hop quilts. Many of her patterns were designed to coordinate with Deb Tucker's Studio 180 Design tools. She has designed patterns for Marcus Brother's fabric and Fons and Porter magazine.

Many of the Block of the Month quilts and Shop Hop quilts will be featured in this month's program.

Quilt Share at Clarity Pointe

Saturday, June 27, 2015
10am

1967 W Trucker's Drive, Fayetteville
(behind Sam's Club)

Come and join us in sharing our quilts with those suffering from memory loss!

Clarity Pointe is an Assisted Living facility with a focus on those living with Alzheimer's or other forms of dementia. These memory diseases can be crippling, but many patients are able to remember events of their past, even if the present escapes them.

Sharing stories of our quilts can be such a comfort to these residents. Many will remember of mothers, aunts, grandmothers or other family members that created these beautiful works of art. Some may have even created their own!

Bring your old or new quilts and share with these wonderful residents!

Please contact Kathy Garringer if you would like to participate.

Do you have a blog? Want to share it with more readers?

GUILD MEETING MINUTES

SUBMITTED BY ROSE LAWRENCE

Q.U.I.L.T Guild Meeting

St. Thomas Episcopal Church, Springdale, AR

April 23, 2015

President Kathy Garringer called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. and welcomed 57 members, guests Ann Marie Steeneck, Mary Clark and new member Debra Davis.

President Kathy also welcomed our vendor Cozy Quilts from Mulberry, AR

Sunshine and Shadows

Kathy Turner – has a new granddaughter

LoVina Payton – still in WRMC, waiting to go to rehab

Roxanne Birchard – Mother had stroke and is in nursing care

Barb Hamernik – Mother passed away

Charlotte Foster – Mother passed away

David Moran – Mother's still very ill

Rosie Davis – has a new great-grandbaby

Joy Williams – has a new grandson

Stock the Shop – Nora Krein

Nora's goal was to attract people so they would want to attend again; she accomplished this goal and even had people telling her they are planning on attending earlier at our next quilt show. In 2013, we made about $1,200 and this year it was almost $3,800 due to all the beautiful items our members made and donated. Nora presented small gifts to several people that contributed to the Stock the Shop: Dorothy Day, Judy Schoeny, Leeanna Walker, Cassie Robinson, Sheila Bayles, Adele Atha, Kathy Garringer, Therese Ramsey, Diane Stringer, Mary Knapp, Diane Crandell, Rose Lawrence, Sandy Gray, Hazel McFall, Amy Rollins, Margie Langanke, Barbara Hancock, Janet Brown, Susanne Tourtelot, Lila Rostenberg, Paula Mariedaughter, Shirley Herbaugh, Diana Springer, Marty Stanchi and Velina Straw. Diane Crandell also received a "Kiss Me Frog" pattern and Nora presented a special thank you gift to Barbara Hancock for her constant encouragement throughout.

Quilt Show – Diane Crandell

Diane took a few minutes to give her thanks to everyone involved in the set up and take down of the quilts and displays. Many members brought some of their family members, cousins, and friends, to help get this all going. She also named and congratulated each member on her quilt show committee and expressed gratitude to each of them for their hard work and diligence in getting the job done. It was a great show and she was thankful she had a great committee to work with.

Quilt Show Numbers – Barb Hamernik

Barb gave the following information to the guild:

Stock the Shop: made $3,522 because we had to pay sales tax

Admissions: made $6,522 after taxes and we had 811 people attend in 2013 and 1,046 attend in 2015. As far as she could calculate taking into consideration the $1 off coupons and hand stamps from the Antique show

Small Quilt Auction: $3,066 was made

Registration of Quilts: we made $998 and the Judge cost $1,170 so we almost made enough to pay for this expense

Vendors: we made $310 more than the cost of the building rental

Raffle Quilt: we netted $3,744 after expenses

Basket Raffle: we made $247 but had to get a license which was $100 for the year. This may not be something we have at the next quilt show

Quilt Show: we made $11,475 (not including raffle money) and still have a couple outstanding expenses to account for. We should have the final total at the Board meeting in May

APRIL 2015

Tonight's Program – Lila Rostenberg

Nora Krein introduced our speaker and guild member Lila Rostenberg. Lila mentioned that she was an art major before she found weaving and then the art of quilting. Lila said she probably began the craft around the bi-centennial time. She brought many beautiful quilts to show the guild in her trunk show and discussed the colors and designs of each one. In 1981, one of her smaller quilts was featured in Quilt magazine. She taught quilting at the Stitchin' Post in Little Rock then moved to Fayetteville in 1993. When she arrived she opened the quilt shop "Quilt your Heart Out" and sold the business in 2003. She is in her happy place when she is designing and sewing her quilts. Lila is not a perfectionist and always says it will "quilt out". She ended her program by saying whatever you do, "make yourself happy with your quilting".

May 28th - Airing of the Quilts – Nora Krein

Don't forget this meeting will take place outdoors at Loneta Blevin's home located on the corner of Perry Road and Bellview Road, across from Target in Rogers. This is an opportunity for members to enjoy a potluck dinner, bring your quilts whether they are old, new, big or small and hang them on Loneta's wooden fence (don't forget to bring a sheet to put under them) then after the dinner each member has a chance to talk about the quilts they brought. Each member needs to bring a potluck dish, lawn chairs and a table if you wish. Drinks, plates and utensils are provided by the Guild Board.

Newsletter – Cassie Robinson

Cassie thanked everyone who turned in 140 names in the newsletter naming contest. Our April issue is the first edition with the new name of "Quilt Quips". Sandy Gray was the winner of the $25 gift card for her winning entry. Next month's newsletter will feature a special section on the 2015 Quilt Show.

Baby Quilt Workshop – Janice Berry & Lou McClellan

May 2nd, at NTI in Springdale from 9am-5pm, everyone is welcome. Bring your machines or just show up, there will be plenty of things to do. You can also pick up a kit in case you wanted to take it home and work on it. These quilts are made and given to the Benton County Children's Shelter and the WIC Program.

Next Guild Meeting – 5:45 p.m. on Thursday, May 28th, 2015 – Airing of the Quilts in Rogers.

The meeting adjourned at 8:30 p.m., followed by Show & Tell.

GUILD BOARD MEETING MINUTES

Quilt Guild Board Meeting
Wendy's, Springdale, AR
May 4th, 2015

President Kathy Garringer called the meeting to order at 6:04 p.m. Those present were: Kathy Garringer, Betty McKee, Janice Berry, Barbara Hamernik, Cassie Robinson, David Moran, and Rose Lawrence.

Treasurers Report:

Barbara Hamernik presented the financial report and budget. Barbara produced the final quilt show tallies. After all receipts were in the net profit for the quilt show was $11,297.83.

The Financial Report shows the Guild has $35,148.06 in the three accounts (Raffle Account, Money Market Account, and Checking Account). The board had previously discussed the possibility of moving some of this money into our existing money market after the quilt show. The board elected to move $10,000 to the Guild's existing money market, this was approved by all. The board also approved the financial report and current budget as presented.

Quilt Quips Newsletter:

Cassie Robinson asked the board if it was possible to move the minutes and treasurers report to the June issue of the Quilt Quips.

The Board stated that since the May meeting is the "Airing of Quilts" and that we would not be voting on anything they approved her request. The April Guild meeting minutes, Board meeting minutes from today and the treasurer's report will be voted on in June.

Cassie uses a new program for the newsletter and she is almost at max data space. She asked the board for an increase of $100 in her budget, this would allow for increased data space and will finish her out for the remainder of the year. The Board discussed and approved the $100 increase to her budget.

The May issue of Quilt Quips is going to be dedicated to the Guild's 2015 Quilt Show. The deadline is still the 12th of the Month for information going in the Quilt Quips Newsletter.

Programs and Speakers:

May 28th – Airing of the Quilts

The board discussed what was needed as far as paper goods, etc. The time of this event begins at 5:45 p.m. at Loneta Blevins home, hang your quilts and have potluck dinner. All members need to bring a dish, sheet for their quilt, lawn chairs and table if they wish.

June 25th – Pam Goggans from Sager Creek is our speaker

Vendors: Betty McKee

It was discussed and decided that June, July, Sept and December months will have vendors since they are already scheduled. The board feels like they need to take a different approach with vendors for such things as door prizes, advertising, etc. The board will be discussing vendors at the upcoming meetings.

Cuddly Quilts for Kids – Janice Berry, Lou McClellan

Janice reported that a total of 12 people came to the baby workshop May 2nd. They had a great time and did some wonderful work. Several quilts were taken to be either quilted or bound and a few that still had to be put together.

Retreat to the Hills – Toni Fenton, Jennie Wehrenberg

October 16-18th, 2015 are the dates for the retreat. If you stay Friday, Saturday and Sunday then room rental (2 to a room) with food included is $180 each.

Sunshine and Shadows

LoVina Payton is in rehab again and doing better.
Lila Rostenberg has a new grandson

Super Saturday Sew-In: Amy Rollins

Kathy Garringer wants to set up a Super Saturday Sew-In at the Ozark Folkways featuring possibly beginner or new quilters doing traditional quilts.

Other Business:

Soldiers On * Service Dogs and Vests for Vets:

Kathy Garringer mentioned Sue Goldman gave her a vest at a retreat and Kathy is going to try making a pattern and see if members would like to make some possibly using denim material.

Ways and Means – Carol Parrish and Sandy Vetter

Due to the guild having to charge sales tax now and having enough places to store the items, the board discussed and decided to put all the stuff in the Country Store and stop providing a table at the guild meetings.

Membership: Mattie Sweat

The numbers were down at the last meeting but that was due to some members being at Paducah Show and other events.

Square.com: this will be looked into as a possibility for the next quilt show in 2017.

Leisure Arts Shareasale: this is items that would be featured on our blog for sale and if anyone orders something from it then the guild gets a certain percentage. This will be looked into and discussed later.

Fat Quarter Frenzy: due to having to purchase an annual raffle license, this will be discontinued as we normally do it. The board decided to talk about it again after Airing of the Quilts is over with, but it was decided that we will no longer take in money for the guild for tickets. A "free" ticket will be given for each fat quarter you bring to the meeting on Fat Quarter Frenzy nights. No money will be made for the guild but fat quarter bundles will be given to the lucky winner/s.

NQA Show is in Little Rock in June

The meeting adjourned at 7:15 p.m.

GUILD MEETING MINUTES

Q.U.I.L.T Guild Meeting
Loneta Blevins' Home on Perry Rd, Rogers, AR
May 28, 2015

At approximately 6:00 p.m., President Kathy Garringer welcomed the group (approximately 40 members) and stated how fortunate we were that the rain stopped, the sun came out to greet us allowing this event to take place.

Announcements before Pot Luck:

President Kathy acknowledged the NWA Q.U.I.L.T. Guild Board; she gave each member something associated with their new or old position. She thanked the following three retiring board members for their hard work and dedication: Barbara Hamernik, Diane Crandell, and Nora Krein.

2015-2017 NWA Quilt Guild Board

Kathy Garringer, President
David Moran, Vice President
Rose Lawrence, Secretary
Roxanna Juergens, Treasurer
Roxanne Birchard, Quilt Chairman
Lori Jones, Program Chairman

MAY 2015

Around 33 quilts were placed on the wooden fence for viewing and members talked about the history of their quilts and patterns. It was a great evening with delicious food and wonderful fellowship.

President Kathy thanked everyone for coming and thanked Loneta for hosting the event again this year.

After announcements the Potluck Dinner was open for all to enjoy then the Quilt Walk began.

Airing of the Quilts ended after the Quilt Walk.

Quilt Guild Board Meeting
Wendy's, Springdale, AR
June 1st, 2015

President Kathy Garringer called the meeting to order at 6:00 p.m.

Those present were: Kathy Garringer, David Moran, Barbara Hamernik, Janice Berry, Roxanna Birchard, Roxanne Juergens, Sandy Vetter, Lori Jones, Carol Parrish, Diane Crandell, Betty McKee, Cassie Robinson and Rose Lawrence.

Treasurer's Report:

Barbara Hamernik presented her last financial report and budget for May 2015, as Guild Treasurer. Roxanna Juergens is taking over the position. The transfer of $10,000 was completed and is in the Guild's existing money market. It was discussed that we need to raise the rental price for the quilt racks in 2017, currently they rent for $350.

Roxanna brought up and discussed the contract for her Treasurer bonding. She found a new bonding contract that will bond up to 5 people for around $100. This would enable the President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and possibly the Program Chairperson to be bonded. The board approved the financial report and current budget as presented.

Quilt Quips Newsletter: Cassie Robinson needs an updated email list as soon as possible. The deadline is still the 12th of the Month for information going in the Quilt Quips Newsletter.

Programs and Speakers:

President Kathy gave an update on the programs as Nora was absent for the meeting. Lori Jones will be taking over for Nora on Programs.

June 25th – Pam Goggans from Sager Creek, "A Sampler of Samplers"

July 23rd – Denniele Bohannon, "Passions Can Open Windows", Workshop – Floating Stars

August 27th – Jane Sassaman

Vendors: Betty McKee

The Board discussed and decided that the policy for vendors will not be changed at this time. However, they did cancel the vendor for the meeting in December. The vendors that are currently scheduled till the end of the year are: Sager Creek in June; Rabbits Lair in September; and Sew n Heaven in October.

Continued...

MAY 2015

Cuddly Quilts for Kids – Janice Berry, Lou McClellan, Diana Gilchrist

Janice reported that a total of 12 people came to the baby workshop May 2nd. They had a great time and did some wonderful work. They are thinking of holding another workshop and if it gets scheduled then they will post the date and time.

Kitchen Committee: we need to find someone to volunteer to help Carolyn Sherry.

Publicity: we need to find someone to take this over, Leeanna won't be able to do this anymore.

Retreat to the Hills – Toni Fenton, Jennie Wehrenberg October 16-18th, 2015 is the dates for the retreat. If you stay Friday, Saturday and Sunday then room rental (2 to a room) with food included is $180 each. President Kathy will resend the information again to everyone.

Sunshine and Shadows
Please keep the following people in your thoughts and prayers:
LoVina Payton
David Moran – his mother is going through chemo & radiation
Ann Roberts – her husband passed away
Dorothy Day – her husband passed away

Super Saturday Sew-In:
Amy Rollins
July 25th – Bear Paw by Barbara Hamernik, this will be held at the 1st Presbyterian Church in Rogers.

Ways and Means – we need to find someone to take this over for Carol Parrish and Sandy Vetter.

Due to storage issues and the Guild having to charge sales tax, the board has decided that we are not going to have a table at the guild meetings each month. Instead, we will begin collecting items a few months before the next Quilt Show and have a table set up there, so please DO NOT bring anything to any guild meetings until further notice.

Membership: Barbara Hamernik is replacing Mattie Sweat

An updated member list is needed.

Stock the Shop: Lori Jones mentioned having a project each month when it gets closer to the Quilt Show that Guild members could make and bring for the Stock the Shop. Cassie mentioned that it could be advertised in the newsletter what the next month project would be giving members plenty of time to make the items. Storage is an issue; we need to find a larger storage unit. The one we currently have is a 10x15 unit and rents for $85 a month. If we add Stock the Shop items it needs to be bigger. Nora made a suggestion that she has a storage unit in Gentry and has one that is a 10x30 with a door on each end. It might be possible, if it's available, to rent this one next year and store all quilt show items there.

Soldiers On * Service Dogs and Vests for Vets: Pres.

Kathy has been in contact with Jack and will talk with him again for a pattern and material suggestions.

Jenny Doan Retreat: Pres. Kathy mentioned that 29 members have paid for this retreat. It's taking place July 9-12th, 2015 in Hamilton, MO.

Other Business:

Square.com: this is an app where you can pay with a credit card; the board will look into this as a possibility for the next quilt show in 2017.

Leisure Arts Shareasale: items would be featured on our blog for sale, if sold; the guild would get a certain percentage of the sale. This is still being considered and will be looked into further and discussed.

Clarity Point Place: Pres. Kathy mentioned on Saturday, June 27th they would like for more Guild members to come visit their facility and bring more quilts to show the residents. It was a big hit 3 months ago when members went and if anyone is interested it will be at 10am on Saturday, June 27th.

Board meeting adjourned at 7:15 p.m.
