A Message from Our President

Greetings, All!

Well here it is June, and the year is half over. I just got back from my Men's Quilt Retreat in Tulsa. Like always, we had a great time, all 15 of us; some came from as far away as California and Texas, Nebraska and Georgia and Louisiana. The fun thing about retreats is seeing what everyone is working on. Some worked on quilts; one guy made 2 shirts and finished a top that he started at the 1st men's retreat 3 years ago. It was great to see people that I've met before and then meet the new ones that I didn't know. I went to 2 quilt shops, and I'm rather proud of myself! I didn't buy a thing!! I know – that's hard to believe.

I can't believe this year is half over! It'll be Christmas before you know it, and that means we need to get busy getting things ready for the season and finishing those projects that are destined to be gifts.

This month's speaker is Robbie from Bittersweet Quilts in Joplin. There will also be a vendor this month and I can't wait to see what goodies they bring. If you get a chance to attend a retreat, I would urge you to go to it! It's fun hanging out with your fellow quilters and maybe you'll learn and new technique or a quicker way to do something.

Well better run and get some things started hope everyone is having a great week!

JUNE SPEAKER

Robbie Triplett from Bittersweet Quilts is the speaker on "Ugly Quilt Rehab". If the dog chewed on your grandmother's quilt while it hung on the line to dry like ours did, she may have a perfect idea to fix it!

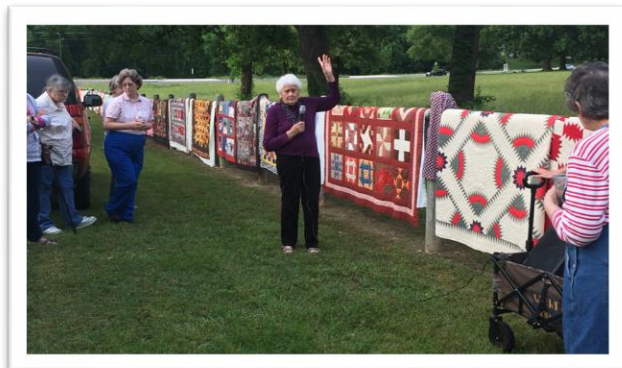

QUILT SHOW April 4-6, 2019

The quilt show committee will meet at the Springdale Public Library on Monday, June 18 @6:00. Everyone who would like help is welcome to attend. If anyone would like to get the Raffle Quilt to take somewhere to sell tickets — please contact Laura Speer at 479-264-9792.

MAY 2018 AIRING OF THE QUILTS

Elizabeth wrote: I am sending you info on my Pantone Win. It's always exciting and an honor to win with my quilts. I entered 2 quilts in the 2018 Pantone quilt challenge, the color was Ultra Violet. Can't believe they both won an award! "Pickle Burst" won 2nd in Quilts category and "Ramps" (left) won 1st Place US entry in Just the top category. I wrote blog posts on both at Andrew-Elizabeth.com. Here's more on the challenge & all the pictures: nohatsinthehouse.com

BOARD MEETING MINUTES June 4, 2018

Members Present: David, Tina, Cindy, Roberta, Laura, Jeanne

Jeanne: Audit is due in June. We need 3 non-officers to review the books, sign off, and bring it back to me.

Laura: Quilt Show meeting on 3rd Monday in June (June 18) at 6pm @ Springdale Library. We have received a lot of welcomed suggestions. Some we will be able to accommodate.

Susan Cleveland will be the speaker for the Quilt Show, and she will do 2 workshops. Her business is known as Pieces Be With You. She is famous for her binding techniques, miters, attic windows, finishing touches.

The June Speaker is Robbie Triplett from Bittersweet Quilts in Joplin, MO. Her subject is Ugly Quilt Rehab, centered on rescuing worn and tattered quilts.

Tina: There is an insurance company called Society of Quilters that offers basic insurance for our guild. It will cover the donation quilt, since it passes through so many hands. Motion to purchase insurance was approved by all.

CUDDL Y QUILTS CUTTING PARTY, May 5th

Cuddly Quilts had a Sit & Sew at Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Fayetteville on May 5th, and we had a wonderful turnout of 21 ladies.

51 quilts were to delivered to Arkansas Children's Hospital on 5-31-18

A big thank you goes to all who helped.

Photos are posted on Facebook Cuddly Quilt page.

If anyone has Extra Red, white, or blue fabric that they would like to donate for quilts of valor I will be taking a box up to Sandy King to make into quilts of valor. She is running low.

I need a couple more people to sign up for the July workshop on wool Appliqué "Gathering Flowers" by Kathy Kansier. The workshop fee is $40 and the kit price for the LARGE wall hanging is $80. (Photos are on her website).

I'm now taking Signups for the fall workshops as well. Don't wait to long, as I expect a couple of these to sell out!

SUPER SATURDAY SEW IN

Christmas in July

Have a jelly roll you don't know what to do with? Our July Super Saturday Sew In will use a jelly roll to make a Christmas tree quilt.

Called Jingle Pop Trees, this pattern was free last year from Hoffman Fabric. Your teacher is Leeanna Walker, and I made this quilt last year for the annual Altrusa Christmas auction. It sold for $300, so someone liked it. I'll provide the pattern, you provide everything else.

Here's what you need:

Your machine

• Power strip/extension cord

- Basic sewing stuff
 - Rotary mat, ruler, cutter, scissors
 - Template plastic, marker
 - 1 jelly roll or you can cut your own 2 ½ inch strips. You won't use a full jelly roll (40 strips,) but the more strips you have, the more fun you will have choosing which tree goes where. Cut your strips before class and you'll be cooking with Crisco.
 - 1 ½ yards white/silver fabric for background
 - 1 ⅞ yards black/silver for outer border and binding
 - 1 yard scarlet/silver for inner border

Size: 48 by 64 inches

Be brave! Choose your own color palette. Maybe you want fall trees or spring trees. Let your imagination run.

Note: This pattern uses templates. However, after I had finished, I realized I could have cut them using a ruler with 60 degree marks. Duh! They're equilateral triangles. So bring rulers with those marks if you want.

See Amy Rollins or Leeanna Walker for additional information.

PLEASE LET US KNOW YOU'LL BE ATTENDING!

Date: Saturday, July 28

Time: 9 a.m.-3 p.m.

Location: First Presbyterian Church, 26th and New Hope, Rogers

Cost: $10

Lunch: bring your own or there are many restaurants nearby.
