Sew on and Sew Forth

Wow!! What a turnout at our last meeting! So great to see everyone there. We're down to just about one month from our quilt show. Karen Kiemeier and her group are doing a great job getting the show together. Please keep an eye out for articles and emails as we get closer so that you can keep up with the latest news!

We are looking forward to a great program at our March meeting. A calendar issue will prevent us from being able to meet at St. Thomas' this month as it is Holy Week and there will be other activities there. Fortunately for us, we will be able to meet at the Washington County Extension Office near the Washington County Fairgrounds. (2536 N. McConnell Ave., Fayetteville) Maribeth will have a google maps image elsewhere in this newsletter for those of you who need a little visual direction to that location. We will not be able to have a vendor at this location, but so close to the show, save that money and spend, spend, spend at the vendor mall at the quilt show. Also, we will not be able to get into the building until 6:30.

Get those bindings and sleeves finished up and delivered to one of the 5 locations noted on your registration forms NO LATER THAN 5:00 on March 16th. Is Sharon going to have to make a pink Sunbonnet Sue quilt?? Will we see her in pink at the next meeting?

At the January meeting of 1/24/13 the following quilts were turned in:

Paula Mariedaughter---1

Stella Day---2

Lou McClelland---1

4 quilt kits were given out to be quilted.

I was not at the February meeting. I know everyone is busy getting their quilts ready for the quilt show, but I expect lots of kids quilts after the show.

Programs

Klaudeen Hansen will give a talk on "Different Styles for Different Shows". As you know, Klaudeen is the judge for this years quilt show and is from Wisconsin. She travels all over the country judging shows seeking out bright new stars for the Quilt Art Engagement Calendar.

Our March meeting will be held at the Washington County Extension Office, 2536 North McConnell Ave. in Fayetteville. The doors will open to us at 6:30pm. We are unable to meet at St. Thomas due to Holy Week but we will have a sign on the door directing those who forget about the location change on the church door. There will be no vendor this month.

Membership

The Directory will be out at the March Meeting, should nothing happen between now and then.

I will also have 2012 Directories available if you haven't picked yours up yet. I know it's a year old and out dated, but I wanted to give you one last chance to claim it before they are disposed of.

We had a record number of new members join in February, hip hip hooray. So we are currently up to 114 Members :)

(I was a little optimistic at the board meeting and gave a higher number of membership, but I didn't have my info all together yet.)

Hope to see you all at the March Board meeting,

Jennie Wehrenberg

Quilt Show News

The work of preparing for our quilt show is winding down, but there will be plenty to do at the show. Your help is needed.

Please volunteer. There are many jobs which must be done, and JoeAnn Reaves is just waiting to add to your name to a schedule.

JoeAnn has stressed that there are sit-down jobs available. Please contact her ASAP with the hours you are available to work.

Therese Ramsey is accepting small quilts for the auction until March 28. The money raised from this auction helps keep the guild afloat so it is imperative everyone participate.

Therese is asking that you fill out the form you will find on the right hand side of our blog home page and submit it with your quilt. The blog can be found at <http://quiltguildnwa.edublogs.org>.

It looks as if Sharon Holladay will have to make that pink Sunbonnet Sue quilt.

At this writing, we have exceeded 200 quilts in the show and are moving toward 300. I know we anxiously await Sharon's rendition of this pattern she most definitely does not like.

Quilts must be delivered to a pickup point no later than March 16. Please call individuals to be sure they are home before trying to drop off quilts. Quilts may be given to:

- * Stella Day, 2009 Patti Ave, Springdale, AR 72762 (479.751.1568)
- * Rabbit's Lair, 116 W. Walnut St., Rogers, AR 72756 (479.636.3385)

* Karen Kielmeyer, 75 Merritt Drive, Bella Vista, AR 72714 (479.876.5794)

* Sager Creek, 304 E. Central, Siloam Springs, AR 72761 (479.524.5244)

* Sew a Stitch, 1311 W. Hudson Road Rogers, AR 72756 (479.621.0000) Lacinda Files is busily preparing for the quilt store. She asks good quality items be dropped off to her no later than March 18. Her contact information is in directory.

Don't forget to sell, sell, sell, those tickets for Basket Case - it is a special quilt and the money raised is important to help us continue offering great speakers and classes.

Finally, Wingate by Wyndham has again offered us special rates during the show. The rate is $59 per night. Ask for the Benton County Fairgrounds rate. The hotel is about a mile from the fairgrounds.

Tomorrow's Heirlooms XIV promises to be a great show. You won't want to miss it.

No entrance to the building before 6:30 p.m.
