BOB-BOB-BOBBIN' ALONG...

A message from our President

My March Madness Mavins!

It's that time of year of college basketball playoffs, daylight savings, spring break and the amazing beauty of spring! Such a time of change! Our winter has been so mild that the transition is hardly noticeable.

Our guild is experiencing a big change this month. Our meeting will not be at our usual place due to Easter services at St. Thomas. We will be meeting at Southside Church of Christ, 919 S. Dixieland, Rogers. Our meeting room is the gym located behind the church. There is a covered driveway between the church and the building and you will go in the west entrance there. There is parking on both sides of the building. If you want to help set up chairs, please come at 4 and join us! We have a national speaker coming. I have heard of Jacquie Gering for many years so I am excited to see her in person. There will be a $5 charge for visitors. If you want to eat dinner with Jacquie that will be at 4:45 at Abuelo's, 4005 W Walnut, Rogers.

We had a great time at the Cuddly Quilts for Kids Workshop! We actually got a lot of quilting done, also. Janice Berry and Lou McClellan did a great job organizing the event. There was fun, food, friends and frenzied sewing!

I am looking forward to my Super Saturday Sew-In April 16 with my Queen's Apprentices. I plan to turn unassuming novice quilters into Super Duper Quilters! Join us! I have already sent out homework. I blame it on No Quilter Left Behind (that's for all my teacher friends)! Email me if you want to join us and I will send you Homework! I know--a dream come true!

Your Very Mad, Mad Majesty,

Kathy

JACQUIE GERING WORKSHOP

SUPERNOVA

IMPROVISED STITCH AND FLIP TRIANGLES TECHNIQUE

We hope you have already signed up for the Jacquie Gering Workshop as it is SOLD OUT! But there is always a chance of someone not being able to attend at the last minute, so if you are interested, but haven't committed, and improvisation to make the explosive Supernova quilt. The Supernova design takes advantage of the ability of the stitch and flip triangle block to create shape. As you make the quilt, you'll learn about the importance of using value differences to create a design with depth and movement as well as how improvisation can create variety and unexpected shapes which lead to a dynamic design. The Supernova quilt for this class finishes at 54" x 54".

Supplies needed for this workshop are listed below:

FABRIC

Background (beige*): 2 yds

Colorway #1 (blues*): ¼ yd (fat qtr) each of 6 coordinating prints or solids in varying values

Colorway #2 (oranges*): ¼ yd (fat qtr) each of 3 coordinating prints or solids in varying values & ½ yd each of 3 addtl coordinating prints or solids in varying values

FABRIC RECOMMENDATIONS: Beige background, oranges and blues are for example only and are based on the inspiration quilt. Feel free to choose the colors of your quilt based on your preferences. HOW I STARTED QUILTING

featuring... Dana Crocco

I started quilting because I was in total awe of the beautiful quilts that my mother-in-law, Darla Bates, made. In fact, just recently I received a big box from her daughter of unfinished projects that she left behind when she passed. I hope I will be able to do these blocks justice and make quilts to give to back to Darla's great grandchildren.

Tonight's Program: Lori Jones

(Hearts and Hands - 19th Century Women & Their Quilts)
This film represents a vital part of American history, the role played by women and their textiles in the nineteenth century. The many quilts the women made, the stories they told and the patterns they created such as the log cabin, and crazy quilts to name just a couple are well-known and continued to be made to this day. They told stories of the great movements and events including the Civil War, the abolition of slavery, westward expansion, the suffrage and temperance of movements. In this film we were given an insight into the lives of extraordinary women such as Francis Willard and Abigail Scott Duniway. Francis Willard was an American educator, temperance reformer and women's suffragist. Her influence was instrumental in the passage of what became the WCTU (Woman's Christian Temperance Union) in 1879. Their colors were blue and white and the letter T was used in their quilts for the Temperance League. Abigail Scott Duniway, was an American woman's rights advocate, newspaper editor and writer and her efforts were instrumental in gaining voting rights for women. The New Northwest, a weekly newspaper devoted to women's rights, including suffrage. Her first issue published on May 5, 1871 and continued for 16 years. Quilts told their stories during this period of time.
