BOB-BOB-BOBBIN' ALONG...

A message from our President

My Dearest Quilting Buddies,

Q.U.I.L.T. MEETING:

MARCH 23RD

6:30PM

ST. THOMAS' EPISCOPAL CHURCH

SPRINGDALE

MARCH
BIRTHDAYS
BRING SNACKS

The Quilt Show quickly approaches. Quilts are turned in and ready to be judged, vendors are ready to come and set up, volunteers are getting the donation quilt out to venues to sell chances, bookmarks and fliers are being distributed, displays are being set up in libraries, volunteer sign-ups are ongoing, pricing and organizing items for the Quilt Show Boutique are being done, last minute advertising is being done..... It is a very busy time. If you are not helping in some way, you need to be. It will take us all to pull this off! We have one more official Quilt Show meeting tomorrow, March 13.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

If you have not signed up to volunteer, sign up with Joe Ann Reaves at the meeting or email her and she will pencil you in. If you can prepare food for set up day, contact Roxanne Birchard by email or at the meeting. You still have time to make items for the Boutique and the Small Quilt Auction. Sell those donation quilt tickets!!!! Invite your friends and co-workers, particularly Saturday afternoon when we have the auction.

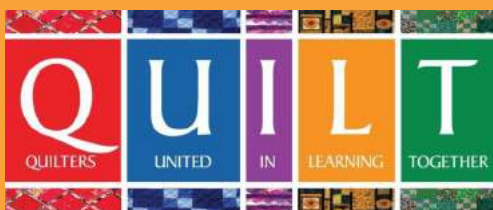

I have started teaching six 8th grade girls at Randall G Lynch Middle School to sew and quilt. I have met with them 3 or 4 times and we have 3 tops finished that will go to the new Children's Hospital. They are so enthusiastic! I brought them 5 inch squares which they have sewn together. We will trim, layer and quilt them after Spring break. They are also making a quilt for themselves if they wish. If you have any 5" squares you would like to share, bring them to the meeting. I had a request for more squares for little boys, as this student is making a small quilt for her little brother. I thought it would only be 2nd hour, but it has continued into 3rd and 4th hours.

I am going to put a small plea for anyone who might be able to help out with Quilt Congress coming up October 27-28, 2017. We are having it at Southside Church of Christ in Rogers. Our featured artists are Jan Krentz and Raija Salomaa. I hated to do too much before we were finished with the Quilt Show, but Roxanne Birchard gave me permission to start asking for help. Right now I have Carla Lesley compiling an email list from the Congress in Bella Vista in 2015. I would like to have a donation quilt to sell chances on, so if someone would like to organize this, I would love it. I hope we could do something that would involve a lot of our members, but also be done fairly quickly. If you have never participated in a Congress, now's the time! I will talk more about the details in the next month. We will meet on the 3rd Monday just as the Quilt Show Committee has.

I am out of breath just writing all of this! Take a look at the slate of officers for the next 2 years listed elsewhere in the newsletter and we will vote on them at the meeting. If you have any complaints, just remember I will solve the problem by writing you in for the position.

Your Harried Head Honcho,

Kathy

volunteers needed

a note from joe ann reaves

We are excited about the quilt show to be held on Friday, April 7 and Saturday, April 8. The set up will begin on Thursday, April 6 and all the information and times are listed to the right.

Thanks for taking time to sign up at our last meeting but we still have many more places available. We did have more sign up this year than we usually do.

We will have the sign-up sheets at the meeting so start thinking where you would like to volunteer. You will receive free admission to the quilt show on the day you volunteer for working 4 hours each day. Our sign-ups are for an hour each so you are free to work, shop and see the quilts as you choose.

Please invite your friends to help volunteer also. We have had many volunteers who enjoyed meeting new friends and later joined our guild. We have many spots to fill and welcome all volunteers. Thanks for your help. Let's work together to make this our best quilt show ever! Please call me if you have any questions.

SHOW HOURS ARE

country store a note from velina straw

The Creative Hands Boutique is still collecting lovingly hand made items to sell at the Quilt Show.

Anything made from fabric is welcome. Kathy Drexler will be at the 3/23 Guild meeting to collect the last batch of handmade goodies.

quilt raffle a note from sue goldman

Members:

Turn in tickets and money for the quilt raffle at the March meeting.

small quilt auction a note from therese ramsey

I will be at the meeting early to accept your quilts for the auction. I will have the form to fill out, which includes information like size, name and description or story about your quilt, or you can print the form off of our website and pin it to the back of the quilt. I have about 33 items, and know of several more that just haven't been turned in yet.

There's still time to make something and contribute to our guild fundraising event! The time is now, and thank you!

hand applique exhibit a note from paula mariedaughter

Hand Applique: For the Love of Needlework

Please loan us your hand appliquéd projects for our special exhibit at our 2017 quilt show in April. Stitching by hand is a human activity common for thousands of years. Applying, or appliquéeing, one fabric upon another can be useful, decorative, or both. Stitching by hand offers many rewards and expands creative possibilities. We want to exhibit a variety of hand appliquéd projects from aprons to wallhangings. Vintage appliquéd quilts and contemporary appliquéd will hang side-by-side. Remember that any vintage blanket stitch projects are usually appliquéd too! We need your contributions for us to put together a successful exhibit to help educate our visitors about hand appliquéd.

Contact Joan Beyette or Paula Mariedaughter for more information. Bring your quilts to our March meeting. We will take good care of everything you loan to us.

Your Quilt Show Committee at work!

BARN QUILT WORKSHOP

TAUGHT BY SUZI PARRON FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 24TH

QUEEN'S APPRENTICES • FEBRUARY 25, 2017

CHRISTMAS IN FEBRUARY!

SOME UNWRAPPING...

Thank you...

I just want to say thank you so much to Kathy and all the "seasoned" quilters in our group who donated gifts and time to the group of new quilters trying to "learn the ropes". I didn't get to attend as many sessions as I would have liked, but the ones I did attend were invaluable. Thanks so much!

Carrie Stolz

SHEENA'S COMPLETED APPRENTICE QUILT!!!

Thank you...

Thanks to Kathy and Janice for sharing their knowledge with us. Thanks to the people who donated gifts to our class. I loved the fabrics.

Sheena Johnson

Thank you...

I have learned so much from Kathy and Janice through these classes. I owe them a big 'Thank You'. They gave up time to quilt themselves to teach us how to quilt. Thank you, Kathy and Janice!!

I also want to thank the ones who gave us 'Christmas goodies'. You were so generous! I got just about everything I had put on my wish list. (1930's fabric, thimbles, starch, lots of calico fabric, a ruler - I didn't have-, needles, fabric markers, a storage container, and pinking shears-not on my list, but oh so needed. You are all so wonderful! Thank you so much.

Carolyn Sherry

A GROUPIE!

Thank you...

My first thank you would have to be to the darling Queen Kathy and her lovely maiden, Janice. Those ladies went above and beyond to make sure that us beginners had plenty of one-on-one assistance with anything and everything. That was the most useful tool of all! And then to organize Christmas for us!!

Our Christmas would not have been complete without you all, the Guild, for graciously combing your rooms, corners & hidey holes, to find hidden treasures for us. Fabrics & rulers & chalks & patterns & magazines & more fabric & vintage needle cases (I love these!) & threads &....I'll stop there!! You all are too kind and much appreciated!! I love you dearly!

Jeannie Schneider
Jeannie Schneider is Teacher of the Year!

Tonight's Program:

Lori Jones introduced tonight's speaker Suzi Parron, & Barn Quilts and the American Quilt Movement. In 2001, the first quilt was painted on a barn in a small county in Ohio, each county in Ohio then took up the challenge of painting quilts on barns, this grew to Tennessee then expanded to almost every state. It wasn't until 2008 that Suzi ever heard of barn quilts, she then set off on a road trip from Georgia to Wyoming with Yellowstone as her final destination. During her trip she would take pictures of the barn quilts and stop and visit with the owners of those barns to hear their amazing stories.

In 2012, her first book on Barn quilts and the stories behind them was put together. She then created a website that pinned quilt trails in every state except Nevada which doesn't have any. Suzi's website can be found at: www.barnquiltinfo.com and her blog can be accessed by going to: <http://americanquilttrail.blogspot.com>
